

To whom it may concern,

My name is Allen Eberwein and I am the Director of the Casado Campus Center and Recreation Programs at Friends University in Wichita, Kansas.

I booked Fred in February and I was extremely pleased with the results. He was extremely easy to work with and his presentation engaged students and helped them realize the power of acknowledgement not only on campus but in society as well. I truly enjoyed how he was able to connect with the audience and keep them on the edge of their seat throughout his presentation. I also noticed a difference in our school community and heard the phrases "How are you doing?" and, "If you need anything, let me know," used quite often after he presented them. Fred presented from the heart, and you could tell that he was truly passionate about the audience and the path they were choosing in life.

I would highly recommend Fred to any school or organization looking to book a speaker; who is punctual, easy to work with, engaging, caring, and willing to give as much value as possible to your experience. Thank you!

Sincerely,

Allen Eberwein
